

Do not call lists and legislation should be maintained and New Jersey's law should be upheld. Telemarketing is an annoyance and unsolicited requests should not be allowed to occur. This is an invasion of privacy and people should not feel they have to have an unlisted number or caller id to avoid these unwanted telemarketers.